

Activity:

Playing with evaluation

Objectives and materials

Objectives

- Demonstrate that everyone can do evaluation
- Encourage creative methods and instruments that more appropriately reflect their work (content and process)
- Enable a space where it's ok to be curious and not know the answers
- Help to level the playing field between youth and adults
- Allow participants to be fully present with each other

Materials

- Space to act out a trailer
- Props (optional)
- Flipchart paper and markers to record

Playing with evaluation<sup>3</sup>

Ask the group if this organization/program were a movie...

- What is the title?
- What is the genre (e.g., science fiction, soap opera, comedy, drama, horror, etc.)?
- Who would the characters be and who would play them (stars)?
- Act out a 1-2 minute performance or trailer
- What aspects of the performance were realistic/fictional?
